
It's Christmas Eve, and Santa is almost to your house.
Anyone there?

If Santa is going to deliver all these presents, we need to do something.

Why don't you
try tickling him?
That will help him
wiggle his way down.

Not my belly.
That's my tickle spot.

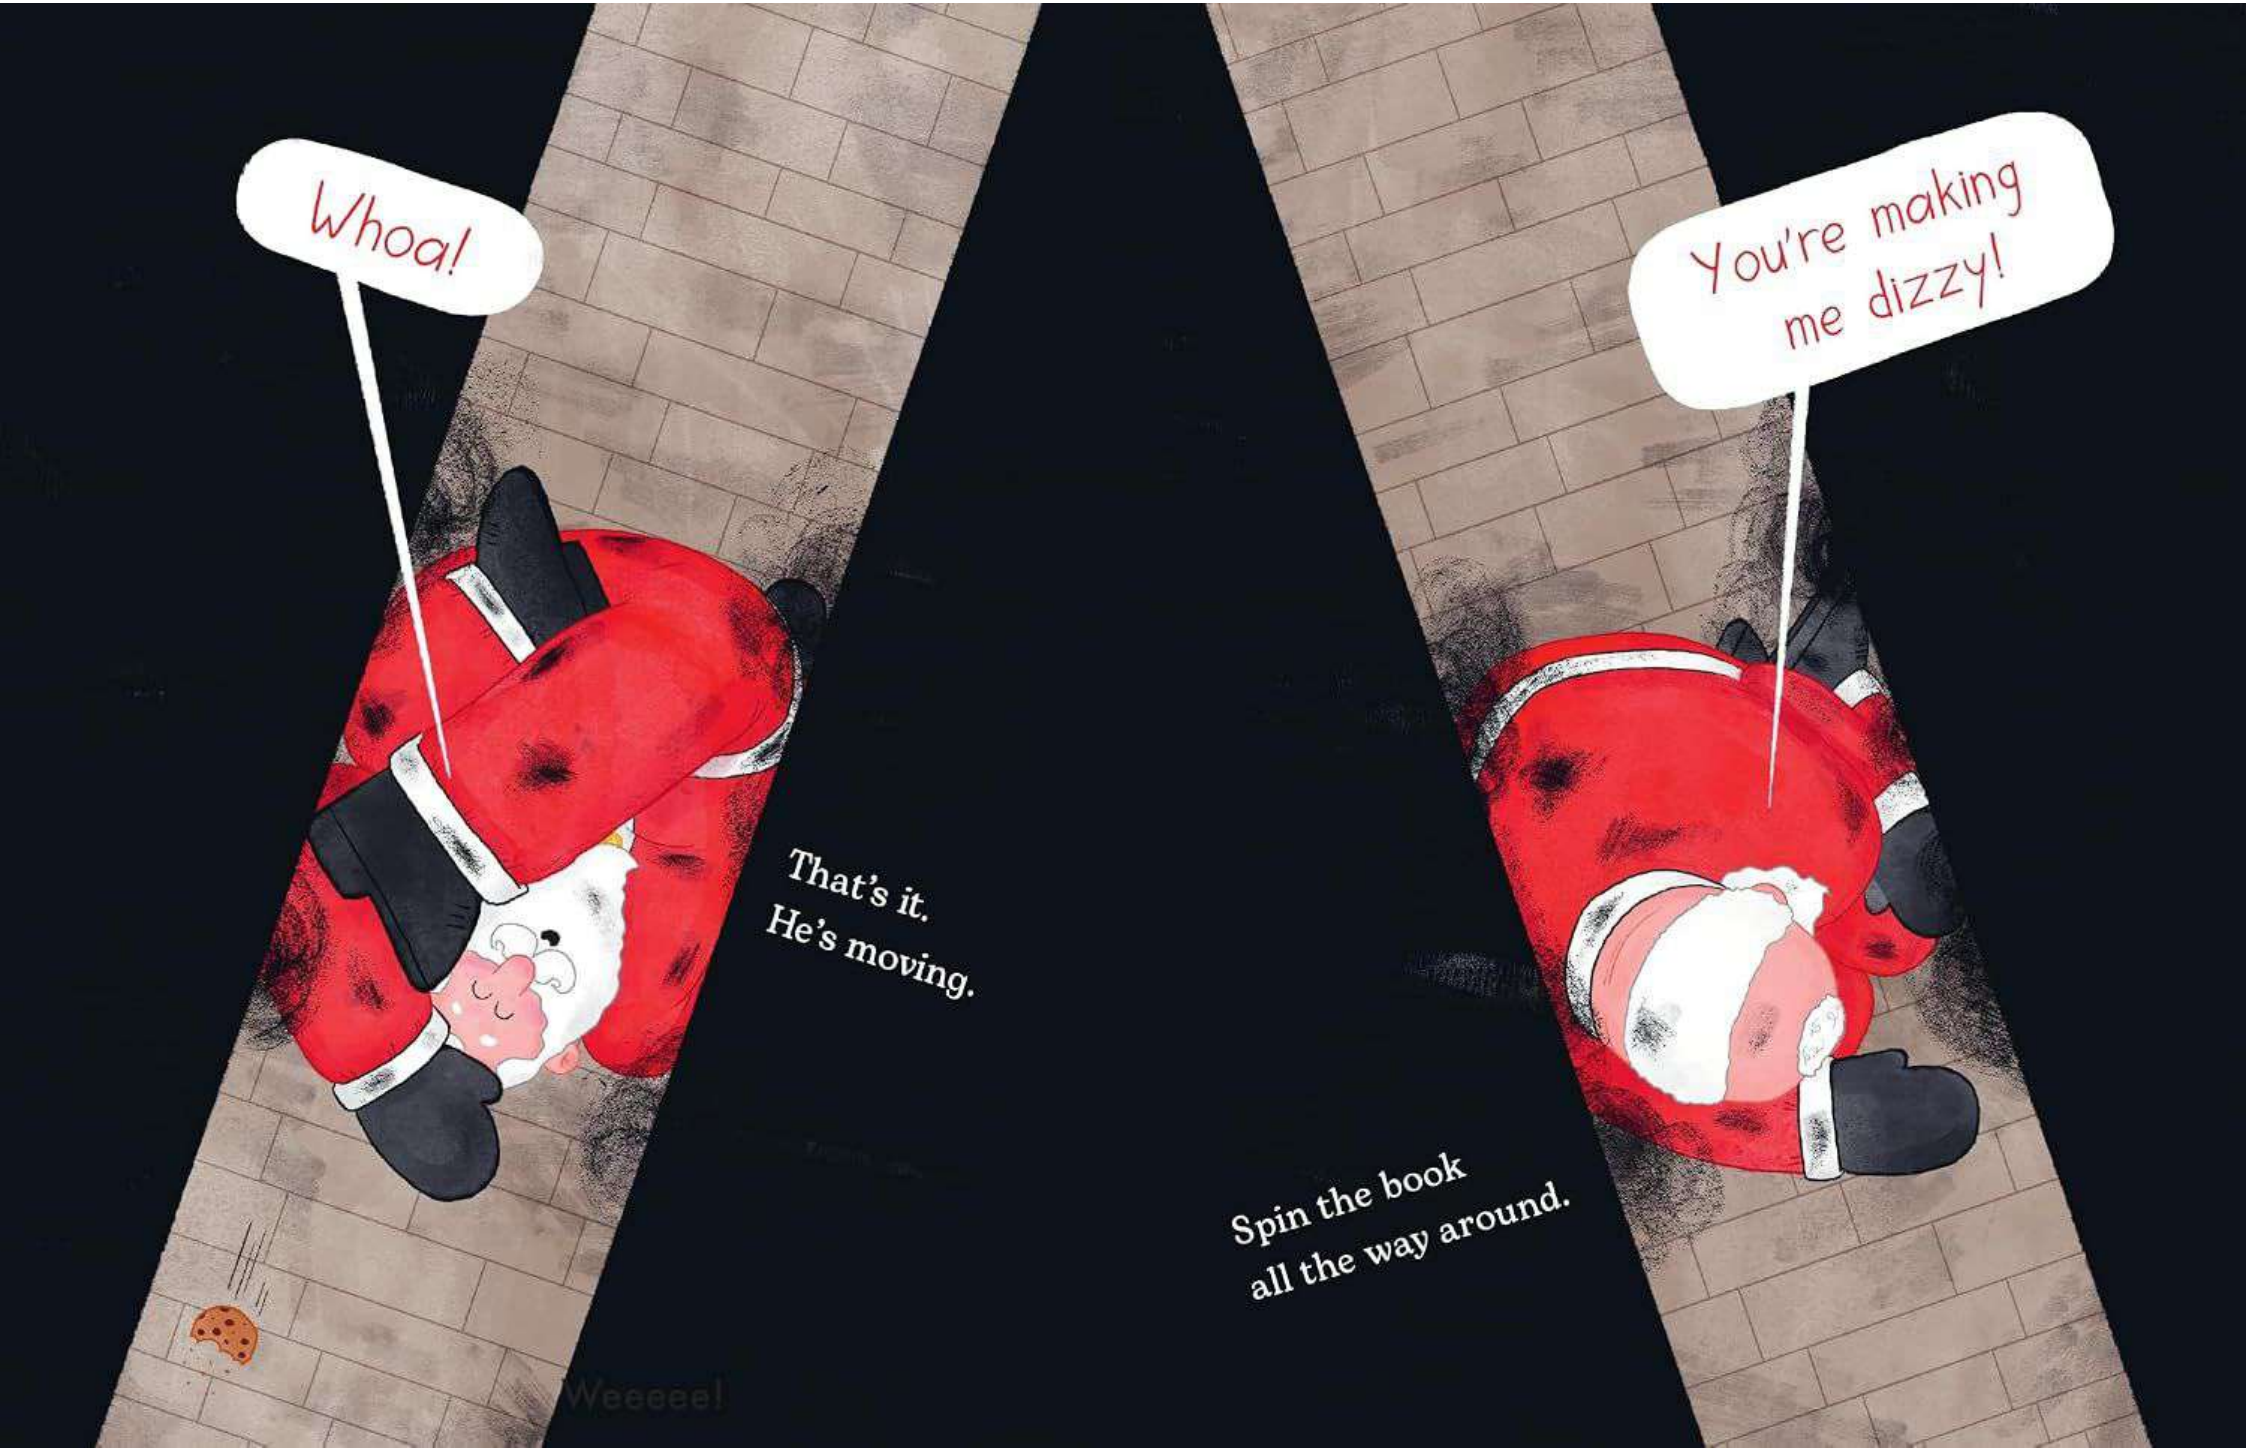

Pee-yew!

I toot when I'm tickled.

I told him not to eat so many cookies.

Can you blow the stink outta here?

Whoa!
That's it.
He's moving.
Weeeee!
Spin the book
all the way around.
You're making me dizzy!
