THE ADVENTURE CONTINUES...

GOOD-BYE, UNOVA, WELCOME TO KALOS!

Some time ago, during young Trainer Ash Ketchum started on the path toward becoming a Pokémon Master in Pallet Town in the Kanto region. Now he and his loyal buddy Pikachu continue their journey in the beautiful Kalos region. So far their travels have taken them on an exciting quest through the incredible regions of Kanto, Johto, Hoenn, Sinnoh, and Unova.

Ash has learned a lot about Pokémon behavior, and he is constantly perfecting his craft, taking every opportunity to train and brush up on his battle moves and Pokémon knowledge. With an awesome collection of Gym Badges to his name, Ash is more determined than ever to pursue his dream of becoming a Pokémon Master and to show the world what he can do!

The Kalos region has a vast and varied landscape that includes rivers, mountains, caves, coastal cliffs and coves, beaches, marshlands, and forests. The region is divided into three distinct areas—Central, Coastal, and Mountain—each with its own unique geography and Pokémon. There are many towns and cities dotted throughout the region. One of the biggest towns, Lumiose City, is a busy metropolis located in the heart of the Kalos region at the point where all three areas meet.

ASH

KETCHUM'S KALOS ADVENTURE!

A confident and more experienced Ash arrives in Lumiose City, ready to explore Kalos in pursuit of the knowledge that will help him become a Pokémon Master. He has his sights set on the Kalos League and is ready to battle and catch as many new Pokémon as possible.

Before he can take on the ultimate challenge, Ash must face the formidable Gym Leaders of Kalos. Ash's Kalos adventures will lead him to many exciting discoveries, information about Pokémon Evolution, and the secrets of Mega Evolution! Pikachu will be by Ash's side throughout his journey, as well as Ash's group of traveling companions—his new friends Clemont, Serena, and Bonnie. Kalos, here they come!

FLETCHLING

Fletchling is a Normal-and-Flying-type Pokémon. The Tiny Robin is the first Pokémon Ash catches in Kalos. If an intruder threatens a Fletchling's territory, it will defend it fiercely. Fletchling has a beautiful voice.

FROAKIE

This Water-type Pokémon chooses Ash as its Trainer and becomes his Kalos first partner Pokémon. The foamy bubbles, or frubbles, that cover Froakie's body protect its sensitive skin from damage. It's always alert to any changes in its environment.

PIKACHU POWER!

This smart, feisty, and fun-loving Pokémon is Ash's best pal. When they first met, there were sparks between the headstrong pair, but over time they have learned to appreciate each other's good qualities. They have a bond and trust that's second to none. Together, Ash and Pikachu can overcome any obstacle.

Since he is so rare and highly coveted, Pikachu is vulnerable to attack and kidnap attempts, but Ash will do anything to protect his best friend. In turn, Pikachu will protect Ash at any cost.

Pikachu always rides on Ash's shoulder—he refuses to travel by the usual Poké Ball method of transport! He is the only one of Ash's Pokémon that doesn't have to use the Poké Ball.

Meet the new Pokémon TRAVELING PALS!

At the start of his Kalos adventure, Ash arrives by plane in Lumiose City with his journalist friend Alexa, who works for the Lumiose Press. Her sister, Viola, is a Gym Leader in Santalune City. Ash wants to challenge her, but she's away. Alexa gives Ash a map and suggests he visits the Lumiose City Gym first. That's where he meets Clemont and Bonnie, who soon become close, loyal friends, ready to join Ash in battle and on his journey through Kalos.

DEDENNE

Clemont is keeping this Electric- and Fairy-type Pokémon for his sister until she's old enough to become a Trainer herself. Dedenne uses its whiskers like antennas to communicate over long distances with electrical waves. It can soak up electricity through its tail.

BONNIE

Bonnie is Clemont's impulsive younger sister. She looks up to her big brother and loves helping him take care of his Pokémon, but is too young to have her own Pokémon yet—a fact that she doesn't like at all, although it doesn't stop her from joining Clemont and Ash on their adventures in Kalos.

SERENA

When Ash meets Serena in Santalune City, they discover that they have actually met before—several years earlier at a Pokémon Summer Camp. They soon become fast friends again. Serena's mother is a world-famous Rhyhorn racer, and Serena has been training to follow in her mother's footsteps. However, Serena isn't very enthusiastic about the sport, and so, after choosing her first Partner Pokémon and becoming a young Trainer herself, she decides to join Ash, Clemont, and Bonnie on their journey through Kalos.

FENNEKIN

This Fire-type Fox Pokémon is Serena's first partner. It is always eager to test its battling skills. Searing heat radiates from its large ears to keep opponents at a distance. It often snacks on twigs to gain energy.

CLEMONT

The shy and reserved Clemont is a bit of a genius inventor (although not all his inventions work out as planned!) as well as a Pokémon Trainer. He loves all things electronic, and is happiest when he's using his keen intellect or unique and unusual inventions to help his friends. Although Ash doesn't realize it at first, Clemont is the Lumiose City Gym Leader.

CHESPIN

This Grass-type Pokémon is Clemont's first partner. When Chespin flexes its soft quills, they become tough spikes with sharp piercing points. It relies on its nutlike shell for protection in battle.

BUNNELBY

The Normal-type Bunnelby is Clemont's go-to Pokémon for battling. It can use its ears like shovels to dig holes in the ground.
