WISH

WELCOME TO ROSAS!

¡Hola! Shalom! Salam!

My name is Asha, and this adorable, pajama-wearing goat is Valentino. We welcome you to Rosas, a magical kingdom where wishes actually do come true! How is that possible, you ask? I'll tell you!

Everyone in Rosas has a wish deep in their heart. What do you dream about? Maybe you want to climb the highest mountain. Or you might want to be the best dressmaker in all the land. The great sorcerer, King Magnifico, grants one lucky person's wish at a monthly ceremony. Whatever the wish, it's bound to come true in Rosas. Because anything is possible in the Kingdom of Wishes!

Now I invite you to join Valentino and me on a tour of Rosas! I know what you're thinking: "Who is this Asha person? And why is she giving the tour?" I'm so glad you asked! It just so happens that I'm a tour guide. That's right—I am an expert in all things Rosas, and I love showing new friends around!

But this is no ordinary tour. Get ready for a special experience. Because Valentino and I will show you sights that very few people ever get to see—places that are usually for King Magnifico's eyes only!

So step this way and stay close—you don't want to get lost, do you? We'll take you to our first stop: the castle, where King Magnifico and Queen Amaya live!

Okay, you probably didn't think a tour of the castle would start in the kitchen, right? Well, this place means a lot to me, and not just because delicious treats come out of its ovens. It's because the person who bakes them is my best friend, Dahlia! Not only is she a pastry genius, but she's kind and funny and I can depend on her for anything!

Dahlia can't run the kitchen alone, though. She's just a teenager, like me!

A group of friends helps her prepare the royal meals. There's Hal, who brings sunshine into every room she enters. Simon is an expert napper—he can fall asleep anywhere! Safi is allergic to everything, even his beloved chickens. Gabo is grouchy, but don't take it personally. Bazeema is so quiet you wouldn't hear her come right up behind you! And finally, Dario is a goofball with a heart of gold.
