“What can I play in the rain?”

Sam asked his father.

“It is raining just a little bit,”
said his father. “Let’s take a walk.”

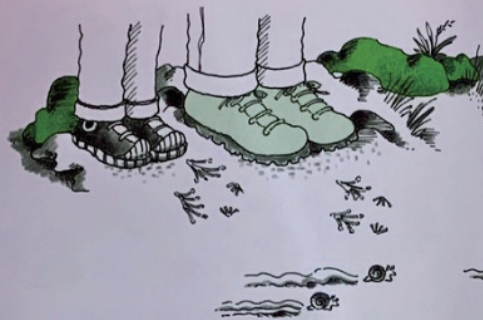

2

Sam and his father came to a trail. “Where does the trail go?” asked Sam.

“Wait and see,” said his father.

3

Then Sam saw tracks in the mud.
“What made these tracks?” he asked.
“Wait and see,” said his father.

Sam and his father saw that the tracks made a trail. The trail went all the way to the lake.

The boy and his father went to the shore of the lake.

“Look! It’s a frog!” said Sam.

“I think the frog made the tracks.”

“Those little black spots are frog eggs,” Sam’s father said.
“Frogs lay eggs in the lake.”
