The Haunted Halloween

Mickey Mouse thought about what a great Halloween party he was going to have with all his friends. He decorated with cobwebs and jack-o'-lanterns.

"Everything will look NICE AND SPOOKY!" he said. "I bet Minnie will love it."

Mickey knew he had an old pirate costume packed away in the attic. He climbed up the CREAKY ladder and turned on the light.

"I'll bet my pirate costume is in here." Mickey's key turned easily in the rusty lock, but dust swirled up around the trunk. It looked awfully spooky.

He lifted the lid of the trunk, and a SCARY FIGURE suddenly towered over him.

"AAAGHH!"

Mickey shouted. Then he realized it was just a plastic decoration.

Meanwhile, in the backyard, Pluto was chasing a ball near the clothesline full of fresh laundry. As Pluto charged after it, one of the sheets fell on top of him. It covered him from HEAD TO TAIL!

At that moment, Donald, Goofy, Minnie, and Daisy arrived at Mickey's house. They were all dressed in their Halloween costumes.

In the backyard, Pluto was still stuck under the sheet. He tried to feel his way toward the doggy door.

"What's that sound?" Daisy whispered. Just then, something white ran past the window. "It's a G-G-GHOST!" she cried. Mickey's friends were too scared to even scream!

In the attic, Mickey lit a candle and put on his pirate costume. He headed down the staircase.

Mickey's friends looked up to see the shadow of a horrible monster coming toward them.

"Oh, no!" Donald screamed as the others hid behind a chair.
