

Disney Junior MICKEY & MINNIE wish upon a CHRISTMAS

Copyrighted Material

Copyrighted Material

Copyrighted Material

Adapted by ANNIE AUERBACH
Based on the movie written by KIM DURAN
Illustrated by LOTER, INC.

Disney PRESS

Los Angeles • New York

If you purchased this book without a cover, you should be aware that this book is stolen property. It was reported as "unsold and destroyed" to the publisher, and neither the author nor the publisher has received any payment for this "stripped" book.

Copyrighted Material

Copyrighted Material

MICKEY and the gang are having a great time skiing in the French Alps. "The best is yet to come, because tomorrow we get to go home to Hot Dog Hills to spend Christmas together!" says Minnie. "You're all FAMILY to me, and I love the holiday traditions we share every Christmas."

But Donald wants to do something new and exciting this CHRISTMAS. He even makes a wish upon the Christmas Wishing Star.

Copyrighted Material

Copyrighted Material

Copyrighted Material

Copyrighted Material

The next morning, the gang splits up to do some CHRISTMAS SHOPPING. They all agree to meet later at the train station.

Copyrighted Material

Copyrighted Material

At the train station, Mickey pulls out his Personal Pal Tracker to show everyone how they will get home: a TRAIN, then a BUS, then a CRUISE SHIP! They will be home in time for Christmas.

Copyrighted Material

Copyrighted Material

As they settle in on the train, hungry Donald takes a bite of his sandwich. Realizing it needs mustard, he uses some of the mustard he bought for GOOFY'S CHRISTMAS GIFT. Before long, Donald uses up all the mustard! He has to replace it.

"Be right back," calls Donald, hopping off the train. Daisy and Cuckoo Loca run after him. "The train's about to leave!" Daisy yells.

Copyrighted Material

... and it does!

Daisy and Cuckoo Loca are left standing on the train platform. It was the LAST TRAIN OF THE DAY! Daisy calls Minnie and tells her they will find Donald and meet the rest of the gang at the bus station.

