Construction Site on Christmas Night

IT'S ALMOST CHRISTMAS!

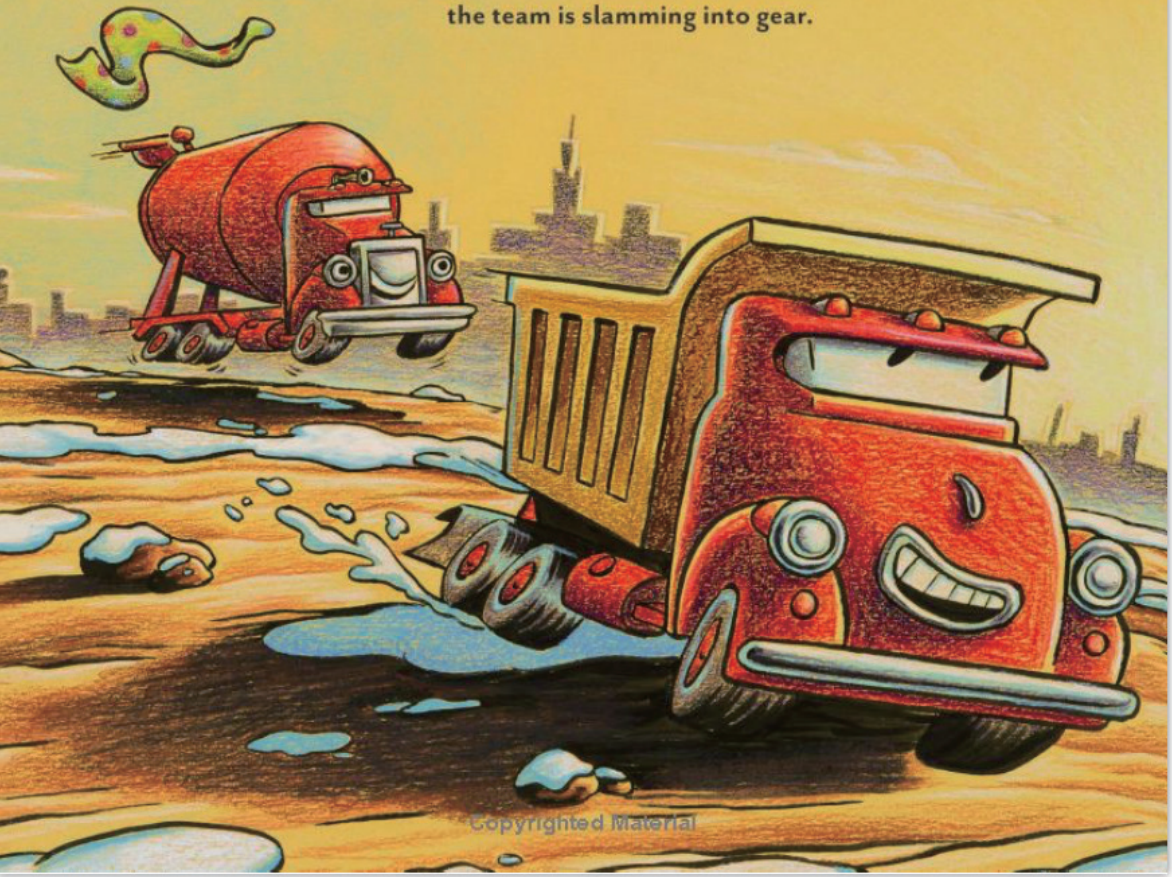

SHERRI DUSKEY BINKER AND AG FORD

Down in the big construction site, there's work to do for Christmas night!

The last big project of the year;
the team is slamming into gear.

So much is riding on the crew—
they have a major job to do!

A special house is being built.
The trucks are racing at full tilt.

This important work can't wait;
they'll get it done and make it great.

Bulldozer's deadline is almost here.
He has a lot of ground to clear!

Working at full-speed all day (rooaaar!),
he pushes hard to clear the way.

For hours he powers, this way and that,
and clears the site in no time flat.

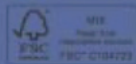

For Kelley, Jackie, and Ann—my oldest, dearest friends.
And for Jules, who patiently answered all my questions about what trucks might want for Christmas—SDR.
