Tomorrow's the big science fair!

I've never won before.

But this year I know I cannot lose because I'm catching a Dinosaur!

The crocs and sharks we know today were here when the dinosaurs ruled.
It makes no sense ALL dinos are gone.
On this point, I cannot be fooled.

The dino is more bird than reptile;
we learned in science class that's true.
And this one left something behind—
I've got our first dinosaur clue!

Looks like we've got a plant eater.

The venus flytrap had no chance.

She danced right by our volcano and knew the exit at first glance.
