Making their master
happy was the Minions'
only reason for existence.

Finding a boss was easy. Keeping a boss—that was a bit harder.

After so many misfortunes, followed by too much time on their own, the Minions knew they needed a purpose—a villain to serve.

Ukulele-playing Stuart and little, lovable Bob were the only volunteers.

A Minion named Kevin had an idea: he would set out to find the biggest, baddest villain! But he needed help.
